

Profile

Lutz Neumann is an Independent Strategy & Sustainability Consultant with over 10 years experience at the intersection of the governmental, private and civil society sectors.

Lutz has a proven track record of strategy development and evidence-based policy making coupled with operations skills for change and transformation processes that are clear, focused, and have a positive, palpable impact. Based on up-to-date experience as a government advisor and project director in one of the leading implementing agencies he focuses on transparency and accountability mechanisms in the extractive industries, especially on policy and compliance challenges in the fields of revenue transparency, supply chain management, human rights and citizen-engagement, and corporate social responsibility. His advisory services combine project management methodology, cross-sector expertise and practical knowledge of large-scale and complex programs in particular in contexts of fragility and post-conflict. He brings in leadership, communication and interpersonal abilities that forge strong, productive working relationships with peers and clients on all levels. He works in German, English (French, Spanish).
